Lahore, 20 June : Model Town Football Academy (MTFA) have engaged services of English Coach Gary Pascoe who have the coaching experience of popular Manchester United Soccer schools. He will arrive at Lahore on Monday, 23 June to train budding talents of MTFA, regarded as one of the best soccer Academies in Asia.

MTFA President Mian Rizwan Ali had earlier called AFC Coaching Instructor Siddiq Sheikh as Chief Coordinator in order to streamline and re-structure the Lahore-based Academy, and now he has appointed well-known Carnmenellis Cornwall-based English coach who completed UEFA A- License (Prep Course) and has acquired UEFA "B" Coaching License and Child Protection Certificate.

"It is my desire to promote young generation of Pakistan soccer and to give them a rostrum where they can study how to play football and make a living out of it. I want to provide upcoming talent awareness of modern football through high-profile, intellectual coaches and gifted Pascoe is fully equipped with enormous array of soccer knowledge," said Rizwan who added that 65-day MTFA Summer Camp is in full swing, in addition to regular both wings of MTFA.

Pascoe is currently coaching Wendron United FC, a Cornish club based in Carnkie, currently playing in the South West Peninsula League and Cornwall Combination League. He is also attached with Soccer Development Schemes of Truro College and Cornwall County. He also trained boys of Plymouth Argyle Youth Development and Porthleven FC in the past.

Currently Chairman of Cornwall Soccer Coaches Association, Pascoe is also Chairman of Cornwall Women's League." It is healthy sign and glittering news for women footballers that Pascoe have the experience of coaching Wendron ladies and it will be fruitful for us as his modern technique will help us to form strong MTFA Women FC for coming National Women Championship," said MTFA Women Wing Chief Coordinator Lubna Afzaal.
